Jemes Wilkins.
Second Ward.—E. E. Lawler, G. E.

members—two from each ward. Meesrs, Dobie, Wilkins, Price and Desmond are the only members of the former com-mittee who have so far banded in their names. Mr. Theo. Ballenger will not be a candidate for committeeman in the Second ward nor will Mr. G. L. Boothe in the Third. The democratic committee held a meeting to the Mayor's office late yesterday afternoon and revised the list of candidates. The indications point to a spirited contest for all the positions, and considerable electioneering has been going on for a veral days. Heretofore but little interest has been shown in the chosing of members of the city committee, but on this occasion considerable importance seems to be attached to their selection.

Of course the race for Delegate to Richmond has ever been spirited and the the normal. There seems to be an evident thirst for office in Alexandria, and dent thirst for office in Alexandria, and complimentary positions in late years which formerly sought the men are now as eagerly beckoned to as if there were millions in them. This has been specially marked of late. We have had contests recently for school trustees, members of the board of health, committee chairmanship (beretofore avoided to many), and now there are a limber. which formerly sought the men are now as eagerly beckened to as if there were millions in them. This has been specially marked of late. We have had contests recently for school trustees, members of the board of health, committee chairmanship (heretofore avoided by many), and now there are a number of entries for the unremunerative and troublesome positions of committeeman. troublesome positions of committeemen. Members of this body invariably incur the displeasure of numbers, especially defeated candidates, no matter how conscientiously they may act. It is hoped that the election tomorrow will be devoid of anything unseemly, and that nothing will be done to add any more bitter blood to the existing order of things. The factions which have so long been at variance should by this time bury resentments and unite in efforts to enhance the interests of the party they represent, so that by next fall their political enemies may ex-perience what they often have before—

MEETING OF THE FIRE was a meeting last night in the Hydraulion engine iouse, held an informal discussion conserving the condition of the boiling of the Columbia engine. Mr. P. F. Gorman, a boilermaker, was present, and stated that he believed that if the boiler of the Columbia was patched up, it would hold good for some months. After discussing the matter at length, the wardens decided to have the boiler tested sgain to day. It is their intention, if possible, to have Mr. C. F. Thomas, master mechanic of the Southern Railway Company in this city, present to witness the test. The wardens are of the opinion that the Columbia needs a new boiler, has been transferred to the Columbia the desired plant to the content of the Columbia to the college of the Columbia to the college of the content of the Columbia to the college of the college of the content of the Columbia to the college of the college o MEETING OF THE FIRE WARDENS, completed, which, it is said, will be at an early date. The boiler it is alleged, has been to bad shape for some time past, and those in charge of the engine completed, which, it is said, will be at an early date. The boiler it is alleged, has been in bad shape for some time past, and those in charge of the engine claim that in its present condition it is a Waterloo.

A further test of the boiler was made this morning, after which a meeting of the wardens was held when it was determined to make some suitable altera-tions in the engine William A. Smoot and put it into commission until repairs shall have been made to the Columbia. It will be necessary to send the latter engine away in order that it can be put in thorough repairs.

MUST ACCEPT THE TICKETS .- Co lumbus Brown, twenty-seven years old, charged with disorderly conduct on a street car, was arraigned in the Police charged with disorderly conduct on a street car, was arraigned in the Police remembered, occurred last epring. The Court in Washington yesterday and acquitted by Judge Mills. According to presecute Richards on account of his the testimony Brown boarded a car on the F street branch of the Washington Traction and Electric Company at Ninth street, and when the conductor asked for his fare he tendered a ticket issued by the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, which was refused. A dispute arose between Brown and the conductor, resulting in Brown being put off the car Edward T. Niles, counsel for Brown, took the ground that the ticket offered by Brown was good on any street car line in the District of Columbis; that the law required that the various companies should accept each other's tickets for fare; that the refusal of the conductor to take the one offered by Brown was a breach of the law and that his ejection and arrest were illegal. Judge Mills in summing up the case said: "All railroads baying an office in the city, such as the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon, the Metropolitan, Tenleytown, and the suburban roads, which go beyond the city limits, have a right to issue a ticket over their route within the limits of the District of Columbia, and this ticket when issued is a legal ticket, and the conductor of any other road is bound to receive it."

There was but one care for trial in the Po-lice Court this moraing—that of a boy charged with injuring and destroying the property of John H. Eebey. He was fine! $2.00.

DROVE OFF WITH HIS EFFECTS .-Some excitement was caused on west Oronoco strest this morning by an act of defiance toward a constable and by the latter telephoning to the station house for an officer. It seems that Constable Beatley had appeared at the residence of Winter Crupper with an at-tachment on the latter's furniture. Crupper's effects were in a wagon at the time and the constable forbade the driver to move them away. Crupper put in his appearance about the time and defied the constable and the attachment, and while Beatley was telephoning to the station house for an of-ficer Crupper mounted the wagon and drove off with the farniture.
